Cohort 4 Letter #2

Dear CARLI Counts Cohort 4 Team Participants, Mentors, and Project Staff:

We are very excited that you are coming to Champaign for CARLI Counts! Please read the following information carefully.

To do

For our arrival day dinner on Tuesday, March 28, 2023, we are going to have an icebreaker called, “two truths and a lie.” These should be two facts about yourself that most people would not know, and one statement that is fictitious. Here’s an example of an untrue statement: “I used to have a chimpanzee as a pet.” (I didn’t, but that would have been interesting!).

Please complete this very quick form by March 15 so that we can collect your “two truths and a lie.”
